

INVITATION

to a panel discussion

„MIGRATION AND LABOR: SOLUTIONS THROUGH (SOCIAL) ENTREPRENEURSHIP?“

DATE, VENUE

Friday, 21. April 2023, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m

Raiffeisenhaus, Friedrich-Wilhelm-Raiffeisen-Platz 1, 1020 Wien

LIGHT LUNCH

ABOUT THE EVENT:

The field of tension between migration, work and the supply of skilled workers- the focus will be on women and girls in the formative years of their lives- in its complexity and multidimensionality is both an exciting challenge and opportunity for entrepreneurs. What role do social and economic dynamics and new forms of inclusion and empowerment play in this matter?

Representatives from business, politics, administration and civil society will address this exciting and topical question in its breadth. The event is (co-)organized by the KSÖ together with other cooperation partners.

EVENT LANGUAGE: German (simultaneous translation into English) and English

Binding registration by April 15, 2023 by mail is request:
office@kompetenzzentrum-sicheres-oesterreich.at

Personal invitation, limited number of participants

PARTNERS AND SPONSORS:

The event is made possible by sponsorship and support from representatives of cooperating partners:

The Competence Center Safer Austria KSÖ is a non-profit stakeholder platform for strengthening security issues.

The Safavi Impact Institute is a private initiative to promote the labor market integration of Ukrainian women in Vienna.

The Markets, Culture and Ethics Research Centre MCE researches economics and social issues from the perspective of Catholic Social Teaching.

Gradus Proximus Corporate Advisory GmbH is an international strategy and management consultancy.

The Pontifical University of Santa Croce for Theology, Philosophy and Canon Law, based in Rome.

St. Thomas University is a private Catholic University in the State of Minnesota, USA.

Terrence J. Murphy Institute for Catholic Thought, Law, and Public Policy

GRADUS PROXIMUS
Corporate Advisory GmbH

John A. Ryan Institute
Center for Catholic Studies

PROGRAM

of the panel discussion

„MIGRATION AND LABOR: SOLUTIONS THROUGH (SOCIAL) ENTREPRENEURSHIP?“

Friday, 21. April 2023, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m

Raiffeisenhaus, Friedrich-Wilhelm-Raiffeisen-Platz 1, 1020 Wien

09:30 REGISTRATION

10:00 - 10:15 OPENING

- Michael Höllner, General Director RLB NÖ-Wien
- Prof. Msgr. Martin Schlag, University of St. Thomas, Minnesota/USA

10:15 - 11:00 FACTS ABOUT MIGRATION AND WORK

Panelists:

- Prof. Wolfgang Mazal, President of the Austrian Institute for Family Research, Vienna
- Prof. Tetyana Panchenko, Ifo Institute, Munich
- Prof. Gabriel Felbermaier, Austrian Institute for Economic Research, Vienna (requested)
- Michael Merkel, Grüner Wirtschaftsdialog, Berlin

11:15 - 12:00 CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY AND ETHICS

Panelists:

- Karl Schlögl, Federal Minister of Interior (ret.)
- Katharina Turnauer, Founder and Executive Director of the KTP Foundation, Vienna
- Martin Rohla, Entrepreneur, Vienna

12:15 - 01:15 BREAK, LIGHT LUNCH

01:15 - 02:15 HUMANITÄRE ANTWORTEN UND ETHIK

Panelists:

- Cardinal Michael Czerny (requested)
- Prof. Msgr. Martin Schlag, University of St. Thomas, Minnesota/USA
- Prof. Luca Mongelli, Pontifical University of the Holy Cross, Rome
- Eva Landrichtinger, Secretary General BMAW
- Christoph Matschke, Member of the Board REWE International AG, Vienna

02:15 - 02:30 IMPULSE LECTURE: ARCHBISHOP CARDINAL CHRISTOPH SCHÖNBORN

02:30 - 03:00 DISCUSSION OF THE RESULTS

Discussion of the results: Key criteria for successful labor market integration

Online Registration